

How many criminal complaints are currently being investigated by GSOC?

So only those that have been admitted and currently under investigation.

Criminal investigations by GSOC are conducted in accordance with section 98 of the Garda Síochána Act, 2005. All allegations of criminal offences by gardaí (for example assault) are investigated by GSOC's own investigators.

As of the 1st December 2021, the number of criminal complaints currently under investigation is 711.