1.1 Time taken to close investigations

In 2021, the time taken to conclude some categories of investigations was reduced, but for others, notably criminal investigations, the time taken increased. Chart 6 shows the median time it took to close cases by type by the end of 2021.

Criminal investigations

At the end of 2021, the median time taken to close criminal investigations was 311 days, an increase of 149 days on the 2020 figure. As outlined in the foreword, there are multiple factors behind this increase, including the increase in the volume and complexity of cases and the impact of the pandemic on all aspects of GSOC's investigative processes. However, another longer-term factor has been the question of resourcing.

Criminal investigations are subject to a review process, which includes standard control measures. As part of this process, cases which have been open for 60 days are formally reviewed by Senior Investigations Officers and those which have been open for 90 days are formally reviewed by the Deputy Director of Operations. Cases open for 120 days are brought to the attention of the Director of Operations for appropriate decisions. In parallel, cases categorised as containing a very serious allegation are subject of review on a bi-monthly basis by the Director of Operations and the Ombudsman Commission.

Unsupervised and supervised disciplinary investigations

Unsupervised disciplinary investigations are undertaken by Garda Síochána Investigating Officers (GSIOS). The median duration of such investigations at the end of 2021 was 199 days, a decrease of 45 days on the 2020 outcome.

Supervised disciplinary investigations are undertaken by Garda Síochána Investigating Officers supervised by GSOC investigations officers. The Protocols between the Garda Síochána and GSOC say that supervised disciplinary investigations must be completed and an investigation report provided within 20 weeks/ 140 days. The median time duration for such investigations in 2021 was 288 days, a decrease of one day on the 2020 outcome.

GSOC-led disciplinary investigations

Non-criminal investigations by GSOC may, under section 95 of the Act, be undertaken by the GSOC's own investigators. The median duration of such investigations was 265 days which is on a par with the 2020 figure.

Median Time Taken to Close Investigations (in days)

Median Closure Time

	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021

Martin

The attached documents are the best I can do in terms of a workflow within the Casework Unit.

What I have is a paper copy that I found on a shelf in my room; the author and date of the document are unknown.

One of the attachments is an unmarked copy; the other has changes marked on it following Rachel and I reviewing it for updates / changes in Casework processes only.

1. Section 102 has been expanded since this document was created and now includes, amongst others, instances where investigations are commenced at the request of the Policing Authority.
2. If a complaint is forwarded under section 85, after recording the complaint, GSOC writes to the complainant and asks them if they wish for GSOC or AGS to consider the matter.
3. The step of notifying the Garda Commissioner occurs post-admissibility decision.
4. All files are first created as a "Query" file and are only upgraded to a "Complaint" when there is sufficient information to do so.
5. Cases thought suitable for Local Intervention (LI) are identified pre-admissibility
6. The Informal Resolution Process which is set out in the top right hand corner is no longer utilised.
7. This is where unsuccessful LI cases come back into the process.
8. If a complaint has been discontinued - because, for example, GSOC is satisfied that a reasonable and proportionate investigation has been undertaken and there is no likelihood of a member being found in breach, rather than a GSIO submitting what is called a "final report" with a finding of breach / no breach – then there is no facility to have the case reviewed under section 94(10). Section 94(10) only applies where the GSIO has brought the investigation to a conclusion and has made a finding of breach / no breach.

As you know however, Casework is the unit that is going to be changed the most by the new legislation so, whilst the process overview may be useful to the Business Analysts in the first instance, its usefulness is limited. Further, whilst Rachel and I have wanted to ensure what we send through is accurate, given the changes, accuracy may not be that critical.

Regards

Kathryn

Subject: Process Maps

Hi Kathryn

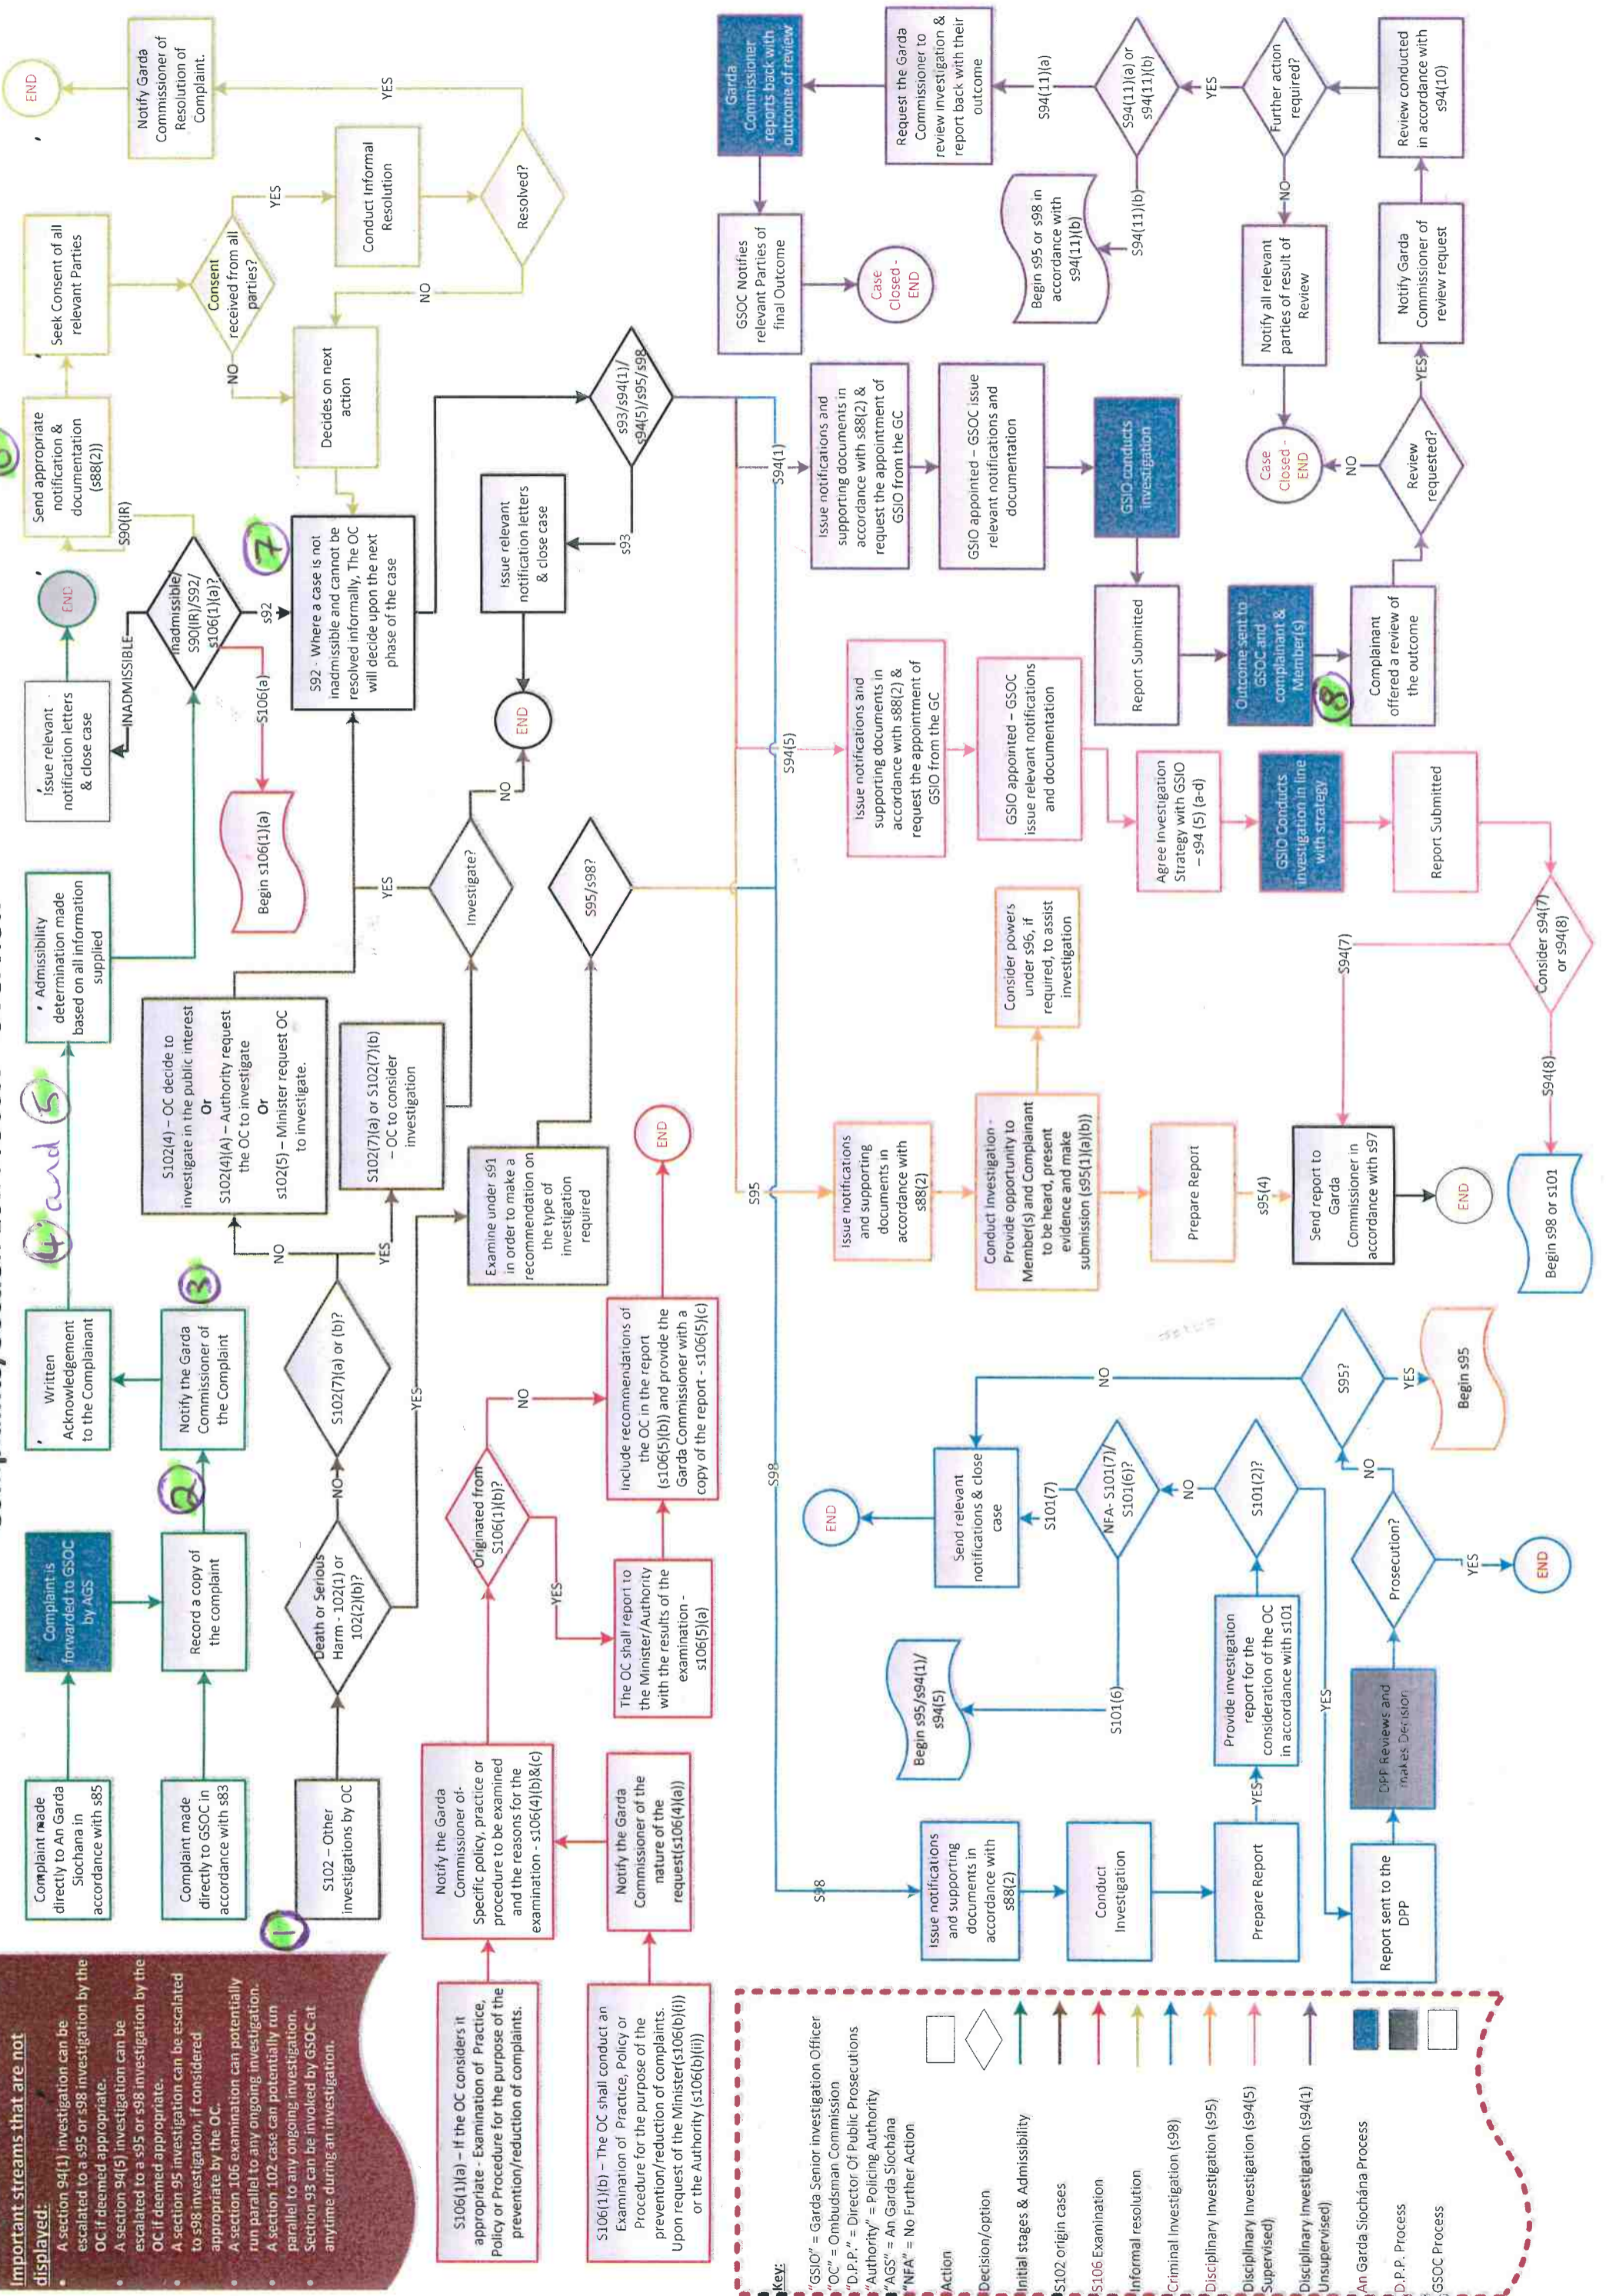

How are you keeping?

Just wondering, is there such thing as process maps for casework or complaint processes? We have it down as an information requirement from the Business Analysts but I can't locate one on Orion. I checked with Rachel also but she's not aware of any.

Appreciate any help on it.

Kind regards

DRAFT

1. Introduction

In May 2022 following a tendering process, GSOC commenced the process of conducting a full organisational review and the development of a roadmap for the reformed organisation in collaboration with Grant Thornton.

This document will record the information shared with Grant Thornton in relation to Stakeholders for the purposes of interviews, benchmarking and project oversight.

This is a living document which will be updated throughout the project as further information is shared.

Project Scope and Deliverables (for Reference)

Scope of the Project

Grant Thornton will ultimately deliver a Business Transformation Proposal to GSOC, including proposals for a new organisation structure, scaling of the organisation, resourcing approach and workforce plan, skillset requirements, process maps, and a target operation model.

To inform the Business Transformation Proposal, the GT team will carry out a review of current operations and structures, focussing on those which will still be relevant for the transformed body, in addition to the legacy workload from older legislation, addressing requirements for new processes or functions, and incorporating process improvement and service improvement initiatives across the organisation, including to highlight opportunities for using technology and innovative practices to enhance customer service. They will provide assistance with projecting the cost of resourcing and establishment of reformed structures and processes as well as future operating costs.

The team will also support in the development of implementation plans to support the roadmap for change including definition and sequencing of tasks, resourcing requirements, identification of risks and dependencies, timelines etc.

Key Deliverables

Grant Thornton will be responsible for delivery of the following outcomes from the project, working with GSOC to achieve them:

- An interim 'As-Is' report outlining the findings from the 'Discover' phase of the project, including the current operating model, processes, systems and resource requirements;
- A final report with recommendations, i.e. 'Business Transformation Proposal', which includes a new organisation structure, scaling of the organisation, resourcing approach and workforce plan, skillset requirements, process maps, target operational model and an implementation roadmap which highlights the definition and sequencing of tasks, resourcing requirements, identification of risks and dependencies, timelines, etc.

Project Status Update – Process Reviews High Level Findings

The Grant Thornton team have carried out a number process analysis workshops with various teams within GSOC. These analysis workshops have been carried out on the following processes:

- How Queries are dealt with upon receipt
 - How enquiries are conducted
 - Admissibility process
 - Inadmissible process notifications
 - S94(1) unsupervised investigations process
 - Local Intervention process
 - Closures
 - Designation Process
 - Allocations Process
 - S95 Disciplinary investigations
 - S98 Criminal Investigations
 - S102 Process
 - Reporting at the end of an investigation process
 - Legal Processes
 - Protected Disclosures Process
 - How Strategic Decisions are received and how decisions are recorded
- It was acknowledged by the majority of participants that many of GSOC's process steps are defined by legislation and that is it often difficult to change processes due to the policies in place.
 - However, there were a number of key themes identified from the process workshops which make the processes less efficient. We will comment on these in our interim report.

Project Issues

There are no issues raised at this point, however this is a living document and will be updated as required and should any issues or change arise.

The proposed Design Principles from the future state workshops are as follows:

- GSOC will seek to prioritise cross-functional collaboration across all units in order to empower a common purpose and a unified organisational focus;
- GSOC will seek to enforce a clearly articulated leadership structure, facilitating alignment of objectives and delivery of the long term vision and strategy;
- GSOC will seek to put people at the forefront of everything they do, and make the organisation a great place to work. They will embed a learning culture, and seek to be an organisation where continuous improvement and staff development is at the core;
- GSOC will seek to delegate decision making to the appropriate level of the organisation, empowering and supporting staff through the transition;
- GSOC will seek to promote public accountability through effective external stakeholder engagement (including the public) and communication (external and internal), and will seek to demonstrate independence in police oversight through visibility and transparency;
- GSOC will seek to enhance their level of expertise and efficiency in the face of increasing demands on resources, and the implementation of the draft legislation; and
- GSOC will define appropriate spans of control and organisational layers and will adhere to this principle in order to ensure effectiveness and efficiency of organisation design is enhanced and maintained.

Note on the Phase 1 Project Group Meeting

09 February 2022

1. Actions List / Decisions Log

A review of the actions and decisions log was provided for new members to the group.

2. Speaker: Martina Colville, Head of Corporate, Department of Justice on Organisational Transformation

As part of ongoing learning on change management for the Project Group another speaker was invited to present to the group.

The group welcomed Ms Martina Colville, Assistant Secretary in the Department of Justice (DoJ) who managed the recent and significant project on Transformation within the DoJ. Martina led a discussion in the context of the DoJ change programme and shared learning points that were considered relevant to GSOC. Martina expressed a willingness to send on any information and that she was happy to share collateral with other agencies.

Martina outlined that the DoJ wanted to build an organisation for purpose - honesty, acceptance and need for change were highlighted as key. It was also essential that staff owned what happened to the organisation. She mentioned the concept of VUCA (standing for Volatile, Uncertain, Complex and Ambiguous) when referring to the environment in which DOJ works and the need to be agile in responding to that environment in developing systems and processes which are future fit.

Transforming the organisation made the DoJ more effective & resilient- building capacity both structurally and personally and instilling a can-do mindset and confidence.

The DoJ had a 9-month timeline to implement Transformation – she noted that a short timeframe focuses the mind and invests an energy to the process. The pace of change is extremely important- the longer a transformation or change takes to implement the harder it is to sustain energy and enthusiasm surrounding it. She advised to consider a timescale that can be managed without exhausting energy and resources. Time should be carved out for the project- It needs to be made a priority.

There was small project team who were leading the Transformation fulltime and a larger working group that acted as advocates for change throughout the DoJ. It was important from the outset that there was clarity on objectives.

The DoJ also used external resources provided by consultants EY. However, it was critically important that DoJ staff took the lead (opened all workshops etc.) in making decisions and being perceived to be leading the transformation. This set the tone- that the DoJ had ownership of the project and were working 'in partnership' with EY consultants who brought specialist skill sets and expertise.

Martina then answered questions from the P1 Project Group which are attached in the appendix.

3. Update on GSOC Observations on Heads of Bill and interaction with DOJ

A meeting was held with the DoJ in December which gave GSOC an opportunity to provide further clarity on the matters that GSOC has set out in its submission on the Bill and to seek clarity from the DoJ in relation to a number of issues. DoJ confirmed that they are awaiting the next draft of Bill to be published, which is likely to follow the receipt of the report of the Oireachtas pre-legislative scrutiny phase.

It is understood that the Oireachtas Justice Committee is currently drafting its report. The Justice Committee have indicated that they have received, and given consideration to, GSOC's submission, which will be appended to their report, but do not anticipate inviting GSOC to meet with them due to the timeframe available to prepare their report. The Committee is expected to finalise its report for submission to the Minister for Justice after one further hearing with the staff associations on 15 February. GSOC will be interested to see the outcome of these proceedings with a view to determine whether any follow up communication is required with Oireachtas Committee.

4. Communicating transition

The December edition of Oversight contained an article about Transition.

IT has made the Transition landing page more prominent on Orion- It is now accessible through featured links on homepage.

The Annual Report will contain a chapter dedicated to Transition- this will give an opportunity to further develop language around transition.

5. Information on next steps for Work Themes and Streams

A visual of the work themes and streams spreadsheet has been designed. This provides for an overview of the overarching themes.

It is planned that in preparing the 2022 business plan many of the activities which will feature in the with Themes and Streams for 2022 will be reflected in the Business plan which will dovetail closely with transition related work.

6. Innovation: Case study

A Case study on innovation around the admissibility process was presented by Kathryn Doherty, with an explanation of how innovation has improved both the process and outcome, increasing the effectiveness and efficiency, as is GSOC's statutory obligation.

Following a meeting with the Commission and proposal from the SCO's, a change in practice has resulted in admissibility decisions being devolved to the SCO's leading to greater autonomy, greater efficiency and effectiveness. The bureaucratic burden has been lifted and only decisions that need to go to the Commission now do so. The process will be subject to Quality Management review.

7. Update on New CMS Group, including discussion of ToR

Draft Terms of Reference (ToR) have been issued and circulated as of 8/2/2022. Feedback was requested from the group in advance of submitting the TORs for Commission approval. The agreed deadline is 18/02/2022.

It was agreed that the leads for the CMS and Knowledge Management groups will meet with the Transition Team in advance of next CMS Group meeting.

The need to manage documents in a better, more efficient manner was highlighted with input sought from operational and administrative areas of GSOC. Particular focus to be given to data protection and security.

The CMS group are meeting with other public bodies who have recently procured case management systems and are seeking feedback.

The following areas were mentioned as important considerations for new CMS system:

- to create a document on human rights and equality compliance,
- to incorporate an improved complainant user face,
- for GSOC to become an innovator on police data, and
- to prepare for new legislative obligation on research and analysis and the identification of patterns of complaints.

8. Risk Management

Further work is being undertaken on the project risks to ensure that they are aligned with the GSOC Risk Register. It was requested that each sub-project also identifies project risks and that these are escalated to Transition Lead where necessary.

9. AOB

It was noted that the SRFT for the procurement of business analysis and other services to support the project has been finalised. It is expected that this will be advertised by OGP pending final DOJ approval of the funding.

Next P1 Meeting to take place in April 2022.

Note of Phase 1 Project Group Meeting

11 May 2022

1. Action List/ Decisions Log

The purpose of actions and decisions log was explained to the group.

2. Update on GSOC/DOJ and GSOC/AGS contacts and Legislative process

Engagement with the Department of Justice (DoJ) is ongoing with the broader implementation project of PS&CS Bill. Correspondence has been received from Deputy Secretary John O'Callaghan in relation to the PS&CS Implementation Programme (which has 8 workstreams) seeking nominations from GSOC for the two Governance structures within the Programme.

GSOC nominations have been put forward as follows:

- Commissioner Emily Logan- GSOC representative on the Programme Board, which has responsibility for strategic direction.
- Aileen Healy – GSOC representative on the Implementation Steering Group, which has responsibility for oversight and monitoring of the Implementation Programme.

The groups are to meet in the coming weeks.

There has been no change with regard to the status of the Bill, as the pre-legislative scrutiny report from the Oireachtas Justice Committee has not yet been finalised. According to Minister McEntee, she expects the Bill to be brought to government and published before the summer recess with implementation likely before the end of 2022.

GSOC is seeking to arrange a meeting of the GSOC/An Garda Síochána working group to explore areas of commonality within the PS&CS Bill. Aileen Healy, Jon Leeman, Claire O'Regan and Barbara Page will represent GSOC.

3. Update on SRFT Process for Transformation Review

The tender went out to the OGP on the 9th March for an organisational transformation review, consisting of a full business analysis of GSOC and a roadmap for the reformed organisation, taking account the implications of the Bill.

It is intended that the recommendations flowing from the review will inform our future resource requirements.

The Tender Evaluation Team met to assess applications. The OGP are to notify the successful and unsuccessful bidder. GSOC hopes to meet with the successful bidder w/c 16/05/2022.

Funding for the additional budget required to meet the costs of the business analysis has been approved by the DOJ.

4. New CMS Group: Terms of Reference and update

The TOR have been adjusted to clearly set out objectives of the group. The P1 Group approved the ToR which will now be considered by the Commission at their meeting on 16/05/22.

The group received an update from the New CMS Group. GSOC has submitted a business case to the Department of Justice for a new CMS. This was based on a comprehensive and detailed template set out by the DoJ. The cost of a new CMS is estimated at €4.5 million over a 5 year period.

Subject to approval of the DoJ, the next step is to specify the requirements of the new CMS.

A blog page has been set up to welcome input/ ideas on a new CMS from all GSOC staff.

5. Update on setting up Financial Independence/Shared Services

The group received an update on the Financial/HR shared services project. There is ongoing engagement with the NSSO regarding the project initiation document, however it is noted that there are a number of governance issues to be resolved.

A follow up meeting has been scheduled for 25/05/2022.

6. Knowledge Management Group: Terms of Reference

The Knowledge Management Group (KMG) is being set up to lead on a strategic approach to managing knowledge for whole of GSOC in a co-ordinated manner. It will work to ensure that organisational knowledge is used in the most efficient and effective way possible, for example, avoiding duplication, arranging appropriate access and documentation.

The draft ToR were considered by the P1 Group and approved for submission to the Commission. This group is made up of members from key areas across GSOC and includes overlap with the CMS project due to the importance of CMS in the collection and recording of data.

7. Communicating Transition

Communicating Transition is a standing agenda item.

There will be an update on progress towards Transition in both the next edition of Oversight and on the next Communications Day 30/06/2022.

The GSOC Annual Report 2021 has focussed on the theme of 'GSOC in Transition', highlighting the organisation's positive attitude to organisational change.

The Commission's appearance before the Oireachtas Public Petitions Committee highlighted GSOC's plans for the future and its views on the legislation. It also showed that GSOC are ahead of the Transition but will require support of the Oireachtas.

Internally, FAQs on Transition have been made available on Orion.

The Newsfeed will continue to be updated with information on Transition.

All staff now have access to the commentary platform which contains relevant media articles and journals extending back to January 2020.

8. Innovation

To make innovation accessible to all GSOC staff, an online Ideas Box has been developed in collaboration with ICT. Once approved this link to the Ideas Box will be added to Orion Homepage.

There will be a lightbulb icon on the Ideas landing page where staff can add submissions or ideas on improvements and efficiencies that can be made to help GSOC achieve its organisational goals now and into the future.

Each staff member can view only their own submissions and the Transition Team has sole access to all of the ideas.

Appendices B, C&D of the paper on Encouraging Innovation that was circulated provide further information on the next steps following submission of an idea. It also links the Ideas Box to GSOC's Statement of Strategy.

The intention is to provide staff with a pathway for innovation, to try to make the steps towards innovation less onerous for staff members and allow the Idea Owner to have their desired level of involvement.

All staff members will be provided feedback and the rationale if an idea is not implemented.

It was suggested that ideas on an organisational level could be brought to SMT and they may act as a facilitator/sponsor if such ideas were to be implemented.

It was also suggested that ideas submitted should be considered for entry into the Civil Service Excellence and Innovation Awards.

These suggestions are to be added to the paper before it is more widely circulated.

9. Risk Management

The Project Risk Register will be incorporated into the overall GSOC Risk Register as well as forming part of the project governance.

It was agreed that sub-projects within the Phase 1 Group should track risks individually and feed into the main Risk Register as required.

Two additional risks have been added to the Transition Project Risk Register in relation to NSSO and Shared Financial Services, including mitigating actions.

Consideration is to be given to any new risks that may emerge from the organisational transformation review.

It was noted that the first meeting of the Audit & Risk Committee (ARC) will take place on 15/06/2022 and will continue on a quarterly basis. The ARC will be made up of two external independent members, one of whom will chair the Committee, and Commissioner Logan.

10. AOB

The first meeting of the Knowledge Management Group is scheduled for 25/05/2022

Next P1 Meeting date TBC

Note of Phase 1 Project Group Meeting

12 Oct 2022

1. Welcome /Introductions

The newer members of the Group were introduced. These included David McCormack, Laura O'Carroll and Joanne O'Donoghue.

2. Legislative Programme

The Department of Justice (DoJ) circulated the draft PSCS Bill for observations at the end of July. Observations were requested by 21st September and GSOC made the submission on time. Submissions are currently back with the DoJ for consideration.

It was noted that it is the intention that GSOC's submission will be published in due course. The importance of having the organisations observations on the public record was also highlighted.

A number of bilateral meetings have taken place between the DOJ and GSOC since the observations were submitted in an attempt to gain a mutual understanding/ clarification over certain aspects of the Bill. DoJ have indicated that consideration will be given to the matters raised by GSOC.

The Department have indicated that the Minister for Justice hopes to bring the Bill to Government before the end of November 2022, to publish it before year end and have the legislation introduced in the Oireachtas in Quarter 1 of 2024.

3. PSCS Implementation

A briefing was provided in relation to GSOC's engagement with the Department's PSCS Implementation Project and the purpose of the different groups that are involved. It was noted that DOJ have indicated that they have already engaged with PAS in relation to a number of recruitment processes, including for Ombudsman Designate, Deputy Ombudsman Designate and CEO Designate. Sanction is awaited from DPER following publication of the Bill but it is expected that these positions will be advertised in Q1 2023.

The importance of working closely with the Department to build relationships and share knowledge on GSOC's business, which will inform the implementation process was emphasised.

4. Organisation Review (Grant Thornton)

An update was provided on the Organisational Review which commenced in June22 and is being undertaken by Grant Thornton. Work completed to date includes:

- Staff survey conducted with 77% response rate. It was noted that Grant Thornton were very complimentary regarding the engagement by staff and the rich insights/ helpful comments and responses provided.
- A review of documents and process mapping.
- Engagement with a total of 22 stakeholder organisations with 29 individuals interviewed.

Currently, Grant Thornton are running workshops with the Commission, Directors and Senior Management Team to evaluate what we have and what we need in terms of skills/capability and resourcing. In addition, a benchmarking exercise is ongoing to determine international best practice and it is anticipated that this process will be finished by early November. A draft report and Implementation plan is expected to be provided for consideration thereafter and these will be presented to the group in due course and consideration will be required with regard to communications once the report is finalised.

5. Estimates Process

It was noted that, while GSOC was successful in obtaining an increased budget for 2023, this related only to business as usual items. GSOC were informed by the Department that DPER decline to provide funding on foot of our requests for additional resources to 1) assist in the work required for transition, including the arrangements to prepare for the new legislation and to implement the Grant Thornton report, and 2) to resource the organisation from 2024 when its remit is widened. It is noted that this will be revisited in light of the Grant Thornton report and the publication of the PSCS Bill.

6. CMS Group

It was noted that the Business Case for the new CMS was submitted to the DoJ in May 2022, but that additional information was requested and clarification was sought. The case was considered by P3 at end September and GSOC representatives attended and presented our case, which was approved subject to a number of conditions. A number of further steps are necessary to secure funding and ICT Unit are liaising with the Department to progress these and to finalise the draft specification in advance of the procurement process. Engagement is ongoing with OGP regarding the procurement process. Work has also progressed to negotiate an extension of the current CMS support and to improve reporting capability.

7. Update Shared Services/Financial Independence

It was noted that A Project Initiation document was being prepared with NSSO with regard to the preparations to facilitate the establishment of the new Vote and supporting financial arrangements. Written confirmation has been received from NSSO that the financial management requirements of the new organisation will be supported by NSSO.

8. Knowledge Management

The cross organisational Knowledge Management Group has been established and had its first meeting. This group will work closely with the CMS project to ensure that areas of common interest are progressed. An important aspect of the group's objectives is to ensure that there is an organisational learning culture, and that knowledge and experience is captured in a manner that can be readily accessed. Culture- capturing information. The group will commence with a knowledge audit to identify existing sources of knowledge in the organisation with a view to establishing a baseline which will inform a view of the information held, its format and location and to identify gaps in content and accessibility.

9. Communicating Transition

The Transition team outlined the various internal communications to staff that have been ongoing including in relation to GSOC's submission on the draft Bill, at Communications Day, in the Oversight magazine, weekly updates, using Orion and the Ideas Box and through engagement with the Grant Thornton work. In addition, the Transition Homepage has a range of material available including FAQs and dan overview of actions to date.

It was agreed that it is necessary to start enhancing both internal and external communications as we begin to move into the implementation phase of the project in order to promote awareness of the work that is being done and understanding of the changes that will be coming on stream.

10. Innovation

The Ideas Box has had a very positive response with submissions currently in double digits.

Some samples of ideas that have been submitted include

- Creation of a dedicated Documentation Room - This was approved by SMT and is currently underway in terms of implementation.
- Building capacity into the Training team to jointly deliver operational training;

The next awards scheme for Innovation will be in December 2022

11. Risk Management

Work is progressing with revising the GSOC Risk Management process. This includes the preparation of a new policy framework and the introduction of a new Risk Register template which is currently being populated with the assistance of managers across the organisation. This will result in a more streamlined and effective risk management process, which will be overseen by a cross-organisational Risk Management Group.

12 AOB

Next meeting date TBC mid to late November

Note on Phase 1 Project Group Meeting

15th December 2021

1. Actions List

All actions o/s appear as agenda items and will be addressed during course of meeting.

2. Update on GSOC Observations on Heads of Bill and interaction with DOJ

- GSOC made its submission to the Oireachtas on 27th October 2021. GSOC is expecting to be invited to appear before the Oireachtas Committee in January 2022.
- GSOC published its observations (based on the Oireachtas submission), with an accompanying press release on 4th December 2021.
- In an interview for the Irish Times, which appeared in the 4th December 2021 edition, Judge Ring discussed GSOC's views on the Policing, Security and Community Safety Bill. ON the same day, GSOC's views on the Bill also appeared in a shorter article on the front page of the Irish Times.
- The Commission had an initial meeting with Doncha O'Sullivan of the DoJ,
- The DoJ will be initiating 8 project groups (with cross body representation) for the purpose of implementing the recommendations of the PS&CS Bill across all areas. Of relevance to GSOC, Andrew Jones, DoJ, will be running a group on Part 6 (Complaints and Investigations in GSOC) of the Bill and Donal Kerr, DoJ, will be running a group on Part 5 (GSOC's structures, resourcing etc). It is expected that there will be representatives from GSOC on these groups.
- AH met with Eileen Tully, PO on DoJ Transition Team, to discuss how to operationalise the Bill.
- AH and other GSOC staff met with the DoJ Legislative Team, with both GSOC and DoJ seeking clarity on a number of points and GSOC raising issues within the Bill that the DoJ has undertaken to consider.
- Commissioner Hume and CO'R met with AGS Deputy Commissioner Shawna Coxon, with another meeting scheduled for February. This is the beginning of quarterly meetings with HH, EL, AH, CO'R and DC Coxon.

3. Discussion Paper on Shared Services

Discussion on the potential approach to the provision of HR and Finance processing systems on the move to Vote Accounting arrangements, necessitated by the change in legislation (based on discussion paper prepared by LG & AMCL).

The group was to:

- consider the alternatives for the provision of processing systems for HR and Finance in the context of the organisation's move to Vote funding; and
- make a decision on the preferred approach for recommendation to the Commission.

The 3 options available to GSOC are to:

1. establish the systems to provide these services in house;
2. go to the market to seek shared services support to meet GSOC's needs; or
3. use the existing civil service shared service options provided by NSSO or others as applicable.

The paper recommended that the most beneficial approach is for GSOC to use the NSSO for the provision of HR and financial shared services.

The P1 Group agrees with the recommendation to use shared services. This recommendation will be brought to the next Commission meeting for approval.

4. Communicating transition

Discussion on the paper, previously brought to the P1 Project Group in September 2021, on the general approach to communicating internally about and throughout the transition to a reformed complaints body. It was emphasised that this is a live document, as communicating internally through the life of the transition is an ongoing, multi-strand process. The P1 Group approved the paper and the general approach to communicating transition.

Communicating transition will be a standing agenda item for the P1 Group going forward, to discuss and gauge the effectiveness our internal communications and engagement on transition.

5. Transition logo

A transition logo was brought to the P1 Group for discussion and approval for use (see below, and used for the first time on the top right hand corner of the first page). It is based on the 4 broad work themes (Engagement, Competence & Capability, Engagement, Quality, Governance & Compliance and Knowledge) and offers context on what each involves. (Click here for the document which contains more context on each workstream.) It is for internal use only.

The aim of the logo is to create an instantly recognisable symbol for transition which will make transition more prominent. It will also provide a tool for communication re transition.

P1 Group agreed to use of the logo internally, on Orion, the Transition landing page and any transition based documents.

6. Update on New CMS Group

The new CMS Group, jointly led by Gary Croke and David Smullen has been established from volunteers and nominees. The CMS group had an initial meeting on 14/12/2021. CMS Group was asked to review CMS functionality 2019 and to make submissions early January 2022 with their ideas and input for the new CMS.

New CMS Group to align and collaborate with Knowledge Management Group, as there is overlap in their function. A member to sit on both groups for continuity. New CMS group may also co-opt someone from another organisation with ICT project expertise and consult with someone from the CSO on data collation.

A Proposal on Paper has issued to DoJ to inform them of GSOC's requirement for a new CMS. Early notification of this was essential to inform of need for additional funding.

The need for a DPIA for the New CMS was noted.

7. Risk Management

This is a standing item on the agenda. There were no additional risk items to be added to the project risk register.

Fiona Laird on behalf of the analysts offered to undertake a risk assessment, to identify internal and external risks specifically in relation to the Transition Programme. This will help with prioritisation, risk mitigation and support business planning.

The team is currently working on terms of reference and how this will fit in with broader organisational risk. This will be discussed further at the next P1 Project Group meeting.

8. Commentary Platform

Michelle Kavanagh spoke about the Commentary Platform and demonstrated how it works. Staff will be able to use this platform to access commentaries on policing reform. It will include articles, Daily debates, blogs and press releases. The platform is searchable and offers a user guidance link. It is a live platform and as such will continue to grow. When it is complete, it will cover the time period from Jan 2017 to present. The team are currently working on backdating the platform to Jan 2017.

It is located on Transition Collaboration page and is currently only open to P1 Group only, but will be available to all staff in the New Year.

9. Information on next steps for Work Themes and Streams

The Transition Team will meet with managers in January 2022 to discuss the next steps and actions necessary to implement changes. Higher level items will be broken down and subgroups formed where necessary.

It is envisaged that both IT expertise and Project management expertise will be required.

10. AOB

Doncha O Sullivan A.Sec in DoJ has offered to speak with GSOC staff about the Transition. This will most likely take place in Spring 2022.

It is anticipated that the new GSOC Chair will commence term in late January 2022.

Note on Phase 1 Project Group Meeting

15th December 2021

1. Actions List

All actions o/s appear as agenda items and will be addressed during course of meeting.

2. Update on GSOC Observations on Heads of Bill and interaction with DOJ

Discussion on the potential approach to the provision of HR and Finance processing systems on the move to Vote Accounting arrangements, necessitated by the change in legislation (based on discussion paper prepared by LG & AMCL).

The group was to:

- consider the alternatives for the provision of processing systems for HR and Finance in the context of the organisation's move to Vote funding; and
- make a decision on the preferred approach for recommendation to the Commission.

The 3 options available to GSOC are to:

1. establish the systems to provide these services in house;
2. go to the market to seek shared services support to meet GSOC's needs; or
3. use the existing civil service shared service options provided by NSSO or others as applicable.

The paper recommended that the most beneficial approach is for GSOC to use the NSSO for the provision of HR and financial shared services.

The P1 Group agrees with the recommendation to use shared services. This recommendation will be brought to the next Commission meeting for approval.

3. Communicating transition

Discussion on the paper, previously brought to the P1 Project Group in September 2021, on the general approach to communicating internally about and throughout the transition to a reformed complaints body. It was emphasised that this is a live document, as communicating internally through the life of the transition is an ongoing, multi-strand process. The P1 Group approved the paper and the general approach to communicating transition.

Communicating transition will be a standing agenda item for the P1 Group going forward, to discuss and gauge the effectiveness our internal communications and engagement on transition.

4. Transition logo

A transition logo was brought to the P1 Group for discussion and approval for use (see below, and used for the first time on the top right hand corner of the first page). It is based on the 4 broad work themes (Engagement, Competence & Capability, Engagement, Quality, Governance & Compliance and Knowledge) and offers context on what each involves. (Click here for the document which contains more context on each workstream.) It is for internal use only.

The aim of the logo is to create an instantly recognisable symbol for transition which will make transition more prominent. It will also provide a tool for communication re transition.

P1 Group agreed to use of the logo internally, on Orion, the Transition landing page and any transition based documents.

5. Update on New CMS Group

The new CMS Group, jointly led by Gary Croke and David Smullen has been established from volunteers and nominees. The CMS group had an initial meeting on 14/12/2021. CMS Group was asked to review CMS functionality 2019 and to make submissions early January 2022 with their ideas and input for the new CMS.

New CMS Group to align and collaborate with Knowledge Management Group, as there is overlap in their function. A member to sit on both groups for continuity. New CMS group may also co-opt someone from another organisation with ICT project expertise and consult with someone from the CSO on data collation.

A Proposal on Paper has issued to DoJ to inform them of GSOC's requirement for a new CMS. Early notification of this was essential to inform of need for additional funding.

The need for a DPIA for the New CMS was noted.

6. Risk Management

This is a standing item on the agenda. There were no additional risk items to be added to the project risk register.

7. Commentary Platform

Michelle Kavanagh spoke about the Commentary Platform and demonstrated how it works. Staff will be able to use this platform to access commentaries on policing reform. It will include articles, Dail debates, blogs and press releases. The platform is searchable and offers a user guidance link. It is a live platform and as such will continue to grow. When it is complete, it will cover the time period from Jan 2017 to present. The team are currently working on backdating the platform to Jan 2017.

Minutes of P1 Project Group Meeting 15/12/2022

1. Legislative Programme

The PSCS Bill was published in November 2022. The Bill includes significant changes to the draft including the name change to the Office of the Police Ombudsman which will further promote public perception of independence from An Garda Síochána.

The next stage will involve the Bill going through the Oireachtas which will give potential for further amendments. GSOC will be performing analysis and observations as the Bill moves through the process.

Communications are working on a Public Affairs piece this is to ensure that GSOC views on the Bill are put on public record.

2. PS&CS Bill- DOJ Implementation Programme

An update on the DOJ implementation group was provided. This referenced the presentation given at the recent Communications Day, the recording of which is available for staff to view and questions are welcomed from Staff members. GSOC is represented on the Programme Board and Steering Group for the Project and key staff members are involved in project groups dealing with the establishment of the new operating model for the Office of the Police Ombudsman and, together with AGS representatives, the new complaints process. These groups are working on developing practical arrangements for a number of reforms in the Bill including notifiable misconduct and 'Joint Investigations'.

3. Organisational Review

The draft Grant Thornton Organisational Review Report is due to be with the Commission for review in mid-December. When finalised, this will be shared with wider GSOC staff in early 2023. It is important that this work is completed without undue delay as it will inform the 2023 work programme and resource negotiations which must proceed early in 2023.

4. New CMS Group Update

The project has received approval in principle from the DOJ P3 Committee. A Peer Review Group, made up of external experts, has been established for the project and have met to consider the project documentation. Once approved, this will allow for the submission of the funding requirements to be forwarded on to Digital Governance Group in DPER. The services of a Project Manager Business Analyst have been secured and it is hoped that these will be in place early in 2023.

The group was updated on the work that is ongoing in the meantime by the CMS Group to update the CMS functionality requirements. In parallel planning for the procurement phase of the project is underway. In addition, the process to agree an extension to the current CMS system for 2 years to cover the transition period are well advanced and upgrades and improvements to the Diver Reports System are underway.

5. Update on setting up Financial Independence

GSOC continue to engage with NSSO regarding the putting in place of financial systems to support the new Vote accounting and financial management process. It is unlikely that practical work in this regard will progress substantively until the legislation has progressed.

6. Knowledge Management Group

The subgroup is currently conducting a review of reports/ information/data held in different areas within GSOC to identify gaps in knowledge and to allowing the group to analyse and come up with solutions.

7. Communicating Transition

Over the last month increased momentum has resulted in collaborative working between Communications and Transition. Some ongoing projects include:

- Communications developed a plan around the publication of the PSCS Bill.
- Update issued to all GSOC staff from GSOC Chairperson Rory MacCabe on the day PSCS Bill published
- Comms Day Update- explained the process of implementing Bill through the Oireachtas
- Visual Aids- posters have been strategically placed around the building in Upper Abbey Street and will be distributed to Cork/Longford Offices
- End of Year Oversight to be issued prior to Christmas with a Transition update Public Affairs Plan to share GSOC's observations and key messages with stakeholders.

8. Innovation

There have been 14 submissions to the Ideas Box to date and it is hoped that this will continue into the new year. A huge amount of work goes on behind the scenes to tease out each individual idea including requesting further information, consulting with other stakeholders and discussing the practicalities of each idea. The next batch of submissions will be presented to the SMT early in 2023.

The Transition Innovation Awards Scheme held its 2nd Quarterly Raffle on the 13th of December and two lucky winners were chosen. The next draw will take place in March 23. A table of the approved ideas and the various implementation stages is to be published on the Ideas for Transition page and work has begun on this process.

9. Risk Management

A Risk Management Policy Framework has been approved by both the ARC and the GSOC Commission. Risks associated with transition have been incorporated into overall organisational risk register.

10. AOB

A comparative piece is currently being formulated between the draft Bill and published Bill. This will be an exercise in comparing GSOC's concerns on draft Bill and if they were addressed on published Bill. and will be available to use for a range of purposes including public affairs and to assist in engaging with the legislation as it passes through the Oireachtas.

The P1 Group will be wound up as the planning phase ends. A Phase 2 governance structure will be put in place to oversee the implementation phase of the transition including to implement the recommendations of the Grant Thornton report and to report on progress to the Commission. It was noted that DOJ intend to appoint the new Ombudsman, Deputy Ombudsman and CEO on a designate basis during 2023 in order that they can lead the transition to the establishment of the Office of the Police Ombudsman in Quarter 3 and 4.

Commissioner Logan and the Directors expressed their thanks to all involved in the P1 Group for their contribution over the last year and acknowledged the strong foundations that have been put in place and the progress made in a number of key areas.

Note of Phase 1 Project Group Meeting

11 May 2022

1. Action List/ Decisions Log

The purpose of actions and decisions log was explained to the group.

2. Update on GSOC/DOJ and GSOC/AGS contacts and Legislative process

Engagement with the Department of Justice (DoJ) is ongoing with the broader implementation project of PS&CS Bill. Correspondence has been received from Deputy Secretary John O'Callaghan in relation to the PS&CS Implementation Programme (which has 8 workstreams) seeking nominations from GSOC for the two Governance structures within the Programme.

GSOC nominations have been put forward as follows:

- Commissioner Emily Logan- GSOC representative on the Programme Board, which has responsibility for strategic direction.
- Aileen Healy – GSOC representative on the Implementation Steering Group, which has responsibility for oversight and monitoring of the Implementation Programme.

The groups are to meet in the coming weeks.

There has been no change with regard to the status of the Bill, as the pre-legislative scrutiny report from the Oireachtas Justice Committee has not yet been finalised. According to Minister McEntee, she expects the Bill to be brought to government and published before the summer recess with implementation likely before the end of 2022.

GSOC is seeking to arrange a meeting of the GSOC/An Garda Síochána working group to explore areas of commonality within the PS&CS Bill. Aileen Healy, Jon Leeman, Claire O'Regan and Barbara Page will represent GSOC.

3. Update on SRFT Process for Transformation Review

The tender went out to the OGP on the 9th March for an organisational transformation review, consisting of a full business analysis of GSOC and a roadmap for the reformed organisation, taking account the implications of the Bill.

It is intended that the recommendations flowing from the review will inform our future resource requirements.

The Tender Evaluation Team met to assess applications. The OGP are to notify the successful and unsuccessful bidder. GSOC hopes to meet with the successful bidder w/c 16/05/2022.

Funding for the additional budget required to meet the costs of the business analysis has been approved by the DOJ.

4. New CMS Group: Terms of Reference and update

The TOR have been adjusted to clearly set out objectives of the group. The P1 Group approved the ToR which will now be considered by the Commission at their meeting on 16/05/22.

The group received an update from the New CMS Group. GSOC has submitted a business case to the Department of Justice for a new CMS. This was based on a comprehensive and detailed template set out by the DoJ. The cost of a new CMS is estimated at €4.5 million over a 5 year period.

Subject to approval of the DoJ, the next step is to specify the requirements of the new CMS.

A blog page has been set up to welcome input/ ideas on a new CMS from all GSOC staff.

5. Update on setting up Financial Independence/Shared Services

The group received an update on the Financial/HR shared services project. There is ongoing engagement with the NSSO regarding the project initiation document, however it is noted that there are a number of governance issues to be resolved.

A follow up meeting has been scheduled for 25/05/2022.

6. Knowledge Management Group: Terms of Reference

The Knowledge Management Group (KMG) is being set up to lead on a strategic approach to managing knowledge for whole of GSOC in a co-ordinated manner. It will work to ensure that organisational knowledge is used in the most efficient and effective way possible, for example, avoiding duplication, arranging appropriate access and documentation.

The draft ToR were considered by the P1 Group and approved for submission to the Commission. This group is made up of members from key areas across GSOC and includes overlap with the CMS project due to the importance of CMS in the collection and recording of data.

7. Communicating Transition

Communicating Transition is a standing agenda item.

There will be an update on progress towards Transition in both the next edition of Oversight and on the next Communications Day 30/06/2022.

The GSOC Annual Report 2021 has focussed on the theme of 'GSOC in Transition', highlighting the organisation's positive attitude to organisational change.

The Commission's appearance before the Oireachtas Public Petitions Committee highlighted GSOC's plans for the future and its views on the legislation. It also showed that GSOC are ahead of the Transition but will require support of the Oireachtas.

Internally, FAQs on Transition have been made available on Orion.

The Newsfeed will continue to be updated with information on Transition.

All staff now have access to the commentary platform which contains relevant media articles and journals extending back to January 2020.

8. Innovation

To make innovation accessible to all GSOC staff, an online Ideas Box has been developed in collaboration with ICT. Once approved this link to the Ideas Box will be added to Orion Homepage.

There will be a lightbulb icon on the Ideas landing page where staff can add submissions or ideas on improvements and efficiencies that can be made to help GSOC achieve its organisational goals now and into the future.

Each staff member can view only their own submissions and the Transition Team has sole access to all of the ideas.

Appendices B, C&D of the paper on Encouraging Innovation that was circulated provide further information on the next steps following submission of an idea. It also links the Ideas Box to GSOC's Statement of Strategy.

The intention is to provide staff with a pathway for innovation, to try to make the steps towards innovation less onerous for staff members and allow the Idea Owner to have their desired level of involvement.

All staff members will be provided feedback and the rationale if an idea is not implemented.

It was suggested that ideas on an organisational level could be brought to SMT and they may act as a facilitator/sponsor if such ideas were to be implemented.

It was also suggested that ideas submitted should be considered for entry into the Civil Service Excellence and Innovation Awards.

These suggestions are to be added to the paper before it is more widely circulated.

9. Risk Management

The Project Risk Register will be incorporated into the overall GSOC Risk Register as well as forming part of the project governance.

It was agreed that sub-projects within the Phase 1 Group should track risks individually and feed into the main Risk Register as required.

Two additional risks have been added to the Transition Project Risk Register in relation to NSSO and Shared Financial Services, including mitigating actions.

Consideration is to be given to any new risks that may emerge from the organisational transformation review.

It was noted that the first meeting of the Audit & Risk Committee (ARC) will take place on 15/06/2022 and will continue on a quarterly basis. The ARC will be made up of two external independent members, one of whom will chair the Committee, and Commissioner Logan.

10. AOB

The first meeting of the Knowledge Management Group is scheduled for 25/05/2022

Note of Phase 1 Project Group Meeting

12 Oct 2022

1. Welcome /Introductions

The newer members of the Group were introduced. These included David McCormack, Laura O'Carroll and Joanne O'Donoghue.

2. Legislative Programme

The Department of Justice (DoJ) circulated the draft PSCS Bill for observations at the end of July. Observations were requested by 21st September and GSOC made the submission on time. Submissions are currently back with the DoJ for consideration.

It was noted that it is the intention that GSOC's submission will be published in due course. The importance of having the organisations observations on the public record was also highlighted.

A number of bilateral meetings have taken place between the DOJ and GSOC since the observations were submitted in an attempt to gain a mutual understanding/ clarification over certain aspects of the Bill. DoJ have indicated that consideration will be given to the matters raised by GSOC.

The Department have indicated that the Minister for Justice hopes to bring the Bill to Government before the end of November 2022, to publish it before year end and have the legislation introduced in the Oireachtas in Quarter 1 of 2024.

3. PSCS Implementation

A briefing was provided in relation to GSOC's engagement with the Department's PSCS Implementation Project and the purpose of the different groups that are involved. It was noted that DOJ have indicated that they have already engaged with PAS in relation to a number of recruitment processes, including for Ombudsman Designate, Deputy Ombudsman Designate and CEO Designate. Sanction is awaited from DPER following publication of the Bill but it is expected that these positions will be advertised in Q1 2023.

The importance of working closely with the Department to build relationships and share knowledge on GSOC's business, which will inform the implementation process was emphasised.

4. Organisation Review (Grant Thornton)

An update was provided on the Organisational Review which commenced in June22 and is being undertaken by Grant Thornton. Work completed to date includes:

- Staff survey conducted with 77% response rate. It was noted that Grant Thornton were very complimentary regarding the engagement by staff and the rich insights/ helpful comments and responses provided.
- A review of documents and process mapping.
- Engagement with a total of 22 stakeholder organisations with 29 individuals interviewed.

Currently, Grant Thornton are running workshops with the Commission, Directors and Senior Management Team to evaluate what we have and what we need in terms of skills/capability and resourcing. In addition, a benchmarking exercise is ongoing to determine international best practice and it is anticipated that this process will be finished by early November. A draft report and Implementation plan is expected to be provided for consideration thereafter and these will be presented to the group in due course and consideration will be required with regard to communications once the report is finalised.

5. Estimates Process

It was noted that, while GSOC was successful in obtaining an increased budget for 2023, this related only to business as usual items. GSOC were informed by the Department that DPER decline to provide funding on foot of our requests for additional resources to 1) assist in the work required for transition, including the arrangements to prepare for the new legislation and to implement the Grant Thornton report, and 2) to resource the organisation from 2024 when its remit is widened. It is noted that this will be revisited in light of the Grant Thornton report and the publication of the PSCS Bill.

6. CMS Group

It was noted that the Business Case for the new CMS was submitted to the DoJ in May 2022, but that additional information was requested and clarification was sought. The case was considered by P3 at end September and GSOC representatives attended and presented our case, which was approved subject to a number of conditions. A number of further steps are necessary to secure funding and ICT Unit are liaising with the Department to progress these and to finalise the draft specification in advance of the procurement process. Engagement is ongoing with OGP regarding the procurement process. Work has also progressed to negotiate an extension of the current CMS support and to improve reporting capability.

7. Update Shared Services/Financial Independence

It was noted that A Project Initiation document was being prepared with NSSO with regard to the preparations to facilitate the establishment of the new Vote and supporting financial arrangements. Written confirmation has been received from NSSO that the financial management requirements of the new organisation will be supported by NSSO.

8. Knowledge Management

The cross organisational Knowledge Management Group has been established and had its first meeting. This group will work closely with the CMS project to ensure that areas of common interest are progressed. An important aspect of the group's objectives is to ensure that there is an organisational learning culture, and that knowledge and experience is captured in a manner that can be readily accessed. Culture- capturing information. The group will commence with a knowledge audit to identify existing sources of knowledge in the organisation with a view to establishing a baseline which will inform a view of the information held, its format and location and to identify gaps in content and accessibility.

9. Communicating Transition

The Transition team outlined the various internal communications to staff that have been ongoing including in relation to GSOC's submission on the draft Bill, at Communications Day, in the Oversight magazine, weekly updates, using Orion and the Ideas Box and through engagement with the Grant Thornton work. In addition, the Transition Homepage has a range of material available including FAQs and dan overview of actions to date.

It was agreed that it is necessary to start enhancing both internal and external communications as we begin to move into the implementation phase of the project in order to promote awareness of the work that is being done and understanding of the changes that will be coming on stream.

10. Innovation

The Ideas Box has had a very positive response with submissions currently in double digits.

Some samples of ideas that have been submitted include

- Creation of a dedicated Documentation Room - This was approved by SMT and is currently underway in terms of implementation.
- Building capacity into the Training team to jointly deliver operational training;

The next awards scheme for Innovation will be in December 2022

11. Risk Management

Work is progressing with revising the GSOC Risk Management process. This includes the preparation of a new policy framework and the introduction of a new Risk Register template which is currently being populated with the assistance of managers across the organisation. This will result in a more streamlined and effective risk management process, which will be overseen by a cross-organisational Risk Management Group.

Note on Phase 1 Project Group Meeting

15th December 2021

1. Actions List

All actions o/s appear as agenda items and will be addressed during course of meeting.

2. Update on GSOC Observations on Heads of Bill and interaction with DOJ

- GSOC made its submission to the Oireachtas on 27th October 2021. GSOC is expecting to be invited to appear before the Oireachtas Committee in January 2022.
- GSOC published its observations (based on the Oireachtas submission), with an accompanying press release on 4th December 2021.
- In an interview for the Irish Times, which appeared in the 4th December 2021 edition, Judge Ring discussed GSOC's views on the Policing, Security and Community Safety Bill. ON the same day, GSOC's views on the Bill also appeared in a shorter article on the front page of the Irish Times.
- The Commission had an initial meeting with Doncha O'Sullivan of the DoJ,
- The DoJ will be initiating 8 project groups (with cross body representation) for the purpose of implementing the recommendations of the PS&CS Bill across all areas. Of relevance to GSOC, Andrew Jones, DoJ, will be running a group on Part 6 (Complaints and Investigations in GSOC) of the Bill and Donal Kerr, DoJ, will be running a group on Part 5 (GSOC's structures, resourcing etc). It is expected that there will be representatives from GSOC on these groups.
- AH met with Eileen Tully, PO on DoJ Transition Team, to discuss how to operationalise the Bill.
- AH and other GSOC staff met with the DoJ Legislative Team, with both GSOC and DoJ seeking clarity on a number of points and GSOC raising issues within the Bill that the DoJ has undertaken to consider.
- Commissioner Hume and CO'R met with AGS Deputy Commissioner Shawna Coxon, with another meeting scheduled for February. This is the beginning of quarterly meetings with HH, EL, AH, CO'R and DC Coxon.

3. Discussion Paper on Shared Services

Discussion on the potential approach to the provision of HR and Finance processing systems on the move to Vote Accounting arrangements, necessitated by the change in legislation (based on discussion paper prepared by LG & AMCL).

The group was to:

- consider the alternatives for the provision of processing systems for HR and Finance in the context of the organisation's move to Vote funding; and
- make a decision on the preferred approach for recommendation to the Commission.

The 3 options available to GSOC are to:

1. establish the systems to provide these services in house;
2. go to the market to seek shared services support to meet GSOC's needs; or
3. use the existing civil service shared service options provided by NSSO or others as applicable.

The paper recommended that the most beneficial approach is for GSOC to use the NSSO for the provision of HR and financial shared services.

The P1 Group agrees with the recommendation to use shared services. This recommendation will be brought to the next Commission meeting for approval.

4. Communicating transition

Discussion on the paper, previously brought to the P1 Project Group in September 2021, on the general approach to communicating internally about and throughout the transition to a reformed complaints body. It was emphasised that this is a live document, as communicating internally through the life of the transition is an ongoing, multi-strand process. The P1 Group approved the paper and the general approach to communicating transition.

Communicating transition will be a standing agenda item for the P1 Group going forward, to discuss and gauge the effectiveness our internal communications and engagement on transition.

5. Transition logo

A transition logo was brought to the P1 Group for discussion and approval for use (see below, and used for the first time on the top right hand corner of the first page). It is based on the 4 broad work themes (Engagement, Competence & Capability, Engagement, Quality, Governance & Compliance and Knowledge) and offers context on what each involves. (Click here for the document which contains more context on each workstream.) It is for internal use only.

The aim of the logo is to create an instantly recognisable symbol for transition which will make transition more prominent. It will also provide a tool for communication re transition.

P1 Group agreed to use of the logo internally, on Orion, the Transition landing page and any transition based documents.

6. Update on New CMS Group

The new CMS Group, jointly led by Gary Croke and David Smullen has been established from volunteers and nominees. The CMS group had an initial meeting on 14/12/2021. CMS Group was asked to review CMS functionality 2019 and to make submissions early January 2022 with their ideas and input for the new CMS.

New CMS Group to align and collaborate with Knowledge Management Group, as there is overlap in their function. A member to sit on both groups for continuity. New CMS group may also co-opt someone from another organisation with ICT project expertise and consult with someone from the CSO on data collation.

A Proposal on Paper has issued to DoJ to inform them of GSOC's requirement for a new CMS. Early notification of this was essential to inform of need for additional funding.

The need for a DPIA for the New CMS was noted.

7. Risk Management

This is a standing item on the agenda. There were no additional risk items to be added to the project risk register.

Fiona Laird on behalf of the analysts offered to undertake a risk assessment, to identify internal and external risks specifically in relation to the Transition Programme. This will help with prioritisation, risk mitigation and support business planning.

The team is currently working on terms of reference and how this will fit in with broader organisational risk. This will be discussed further at the next P1 Project Group meeting.

8. Commentary Platform

Michelle Kavanagh spoke about the Commentary Platform and demonstrated how it works. Staff will be able to use this platform to access commentaries on policing reform. It will include articles, Daily debates, blogs and press releases. The platform is searchable and offers a user guidance link. It is a live platform and as such will continue to grow. When it is complete, it will cover the time period from Jan 2017 to present. The team are currently working on backdating the platform to Jan 2017.

It is located on Transition Collaboration page and is currently only open to P1 Group only, but will be available to all staff in the New Year.

9. Information on next steps for Work Themes and Streams

The Transition Team will meet with managers in January 2022 to discuss the next steps and actions necessary to implement changes. Higher level items will be broken down and subgroups formed where necessary.

It is envisaged that both IT expertise and Project management expertise will be required.

10. AOB

Doncha O Sullivan A.Sec in DoJ has offered to speak with GSOC staff about the Transition. This will most likely take place in Spring 2022.

It is anticipated that the new GSOC Chair will commence term in late January 2022.

Note on the Phase 1 Project Group Meeting

09 February 2022

1. Actions List / Decisions Log

A review of the actions and decisions log was provided for new members to the group.

2. Speaker: Martina Colville, Head of Corporate, Department of Justice on Organisational Transformation

As part of ongoing learning on change management for the Project Group another speaker was invited to present to the group.

The group welcomed Ms Martina Colville, Assistant Secretary in the Department of Justice (DoJ) who managed the recent and significant project on Transformation within the DoJ. Martina led a discussion in the context of the DoJ change programme and shared learning points that were considered relevant to GSOC. Martina expressed a willingness to send on any information and that she was happy to share collateral with other agencies.

Martina outlined that the DoJ wanted to build an organisation for purpose - honesty, acceptance and need for change were highlighted as key. It was also essential that staff owned what happened to the organisation. She mentioned the concept of VUCA (standing for Volatile, Uncertain, Complex and Ambiguous) when referring to the environment in which DOJ works and the need to be agile in responding to that environment in developing systems and processes which are future fit.

Transforming the organisation made the DoJ more effective & resilient- building capacity both structurally and personally and instilling a can-do mindset and confidence.

The DoJ had a 9-month timeline to implement Transformation – she noted that a short timeframe focuses the mind and invests an energy to the process. The pace of change is extremely important- the longer a transformation or change takes to implement the harder it is to sustain energy and enthusiasm surrounding it. She advised to consider a timescale that can be managed without exhausting energy and resources. Time should be carved out for the project- It needs to be made a priority.

There was small project team who were leading the Transformation fulltime and a larger working group that acted as advocates for change throughout the DoJ. It was important from the outset that there was clarity on objectives.

The DoJ also used external resources provided by consultants EY. However, it was critically important that DoJ staff took the lead (opened all workshops etc.) in making decisions and being perceived to be leading the transformation. This set the tone- that the DoJ had ownership of the project and were working 'in partnership' with EY consultants who brought specialist skill sets and expertise.

Martina then answered questions from the P1 Project Group which are attached in the appendix.

3. Update on GSOC Observations on Heads of Bill and interaction with DOJ

A meeting was held with the DoJ in December which gave GSOC an opportunity to provide further clarity on the matters that GSOC has set out in its submission on the Bill and to seek clarity from the DoJ in relation to a number of issues. DoJ confirmed that they are awaiting the next draft of Bill to be published, which is likely to follow the receipt of the report of the Oireachtas pre-legislative scrutiny phase.

It is understood that the Oireachtas Justice Committee is currently drafting its report. The Justice Committee have indicated that they have received, and given consideration to, GSOC's submission, which will be appended to their report, but do not anticipate inviting GSOC to meet with them due to the timeframe available to prepare their report. The Committee is expected to finalise its report for submission to the Minister for Justice after one further hearing with the staff associations on 15 February. GSOC will be interested to see the outcome of these proceedings with a view to determine whether any follow up communication is required with Oireachtas Committee.

4. Communicating transition

The December edition of Oversight contained an article about Transition.

IT has made the Transition landing page more prominent on Orion- It is now accessible through featured links on homepage.

The Annual Report will contain a chapter dedicated to Transition- this will give an opportunity to further develop language around transition.

5. Information on next steps for Work Themes and Streams

A visual of the work themes and streams spreadsheet has been designed. This provides for an overview of the overarching themes.

It is planned that in preparing the 2022 business plan many of the activities which will feature in the with Themes and Streams for 2022 will be reflected in the Business plan which will dovetail closely with transition related work.

6. Innovation: Case study

A Case study on innovation around the admissibility process was presented by Kathryn Doherty, with an explanation of how innovation has improved both the process and outcome, increasing the effectiveness and efficiency, as is GSOC's statutory obligation.

Following a meeting with the Commission and proposal from the SCO's, a change in practice has resulted in admissibility decisions being devolved to the SCO's leading to greater autonomy, greater efficiency and effectiveness. The bureaucratic burden has been lifted and only decisions that need to go to the Commission now do so. The process will be subject to Quality Management review.

7. Update on New CMS Group, including discussion of ToR

Draft Terms of Reference (ToR) have been issued and circulated as of 8/2/2022. Feedback was requested from the group in advance of submitting the TORs for Commission approval. The agreed deadline is 18/02/2022.

It was agreed that the leads for the CMS and Knowledge Management groups will meet with the Transition Team in advance of next CMS Group meeting.

The need to manage documents in a better, more efficient manner was highlighted with input sought from operational and administrative areas of GSOC. Particular focus to be given to data protection and security.

The CMS group are meeting with other public bodies who have recently procured case management systems and are seeking feedback.

The following areas were mentioned as important considerations for new CMS system:

- to create a document on human rights and equality compliance,
- to incorporate an improved complainant user face,
- for GSOC to become an innovator on police data, and
- to prepare for new legislative obligation on research and analysis and the identification of patterns of complaints.

8. Risk Management

Further work is being undertaken on the project risks to ensure that they are aligned with the GSOC Risk Register. It was requested that each sub-project also identifies project risks and that these are escalated to Transition Lead where necessary.

9. AOB

It was noted that the SRFT for the procurement of business analysis and other services to support the project has been finalised. It is expected that this will be advertised by OGP pending final DOJ approval of the funding.

Next P1 Meeting to take place in April 2022.
